

PRACTICE SCIENCE TEST
Courtesy of LanceMarcum.com
(Circle the letter of the correct answer)

1. Atoms consist of electrons, neutrons, and
A) protons B) proteins C) propane
2. Stars are made in
A) huge molecular clouds of primordial hydrogen
B) kindergarten C) Hollywood
3. At the center of most large galaxies is probably a supermassive
A) black hole B) pothole C) doughnut hole
4. Astronomers have recently discovered that our own galaxy is a
A) barred spiral B) marred spiral C) tarred spiral
5. Tyrannosaurus rex teeth were
A) serrated B) aerated C) R-rated
6. Raptors like Deinonychus more than likely hunted in
A) packs B) Land Rovers C) bright orange safety vests
7. The name “sauropod” translates to
A) “lizard feet” B) “flying feet” C) “My feet are killing me!”
8. Most scientists now believe that dinosaurs died from
A) a mass extinction of extraterrestrial origin
B) Africanized bee stings C) boredom
9. Many paleontologists think that dinosaur descendants are still alive today, and are called
A) birds B) on rotary phones C) for jury duty
10. Early humans made homes out of
A) mammoth bones B) styrofoam C) sight of their in-laws

(If you answered “A” to all ten questions, give yourself an “A.”)

